SKIRMISHING ON THE OUTPOSTS. New York, May 2.-Cable dispatches say hat in Caucauses the Russian army crossed the frontier at three different points. The corps under General Oklabicco, a Georgian by birth, encountered a body of Turkisl troops and took possession of their strongly fortified camp. The Russian loss was thirty killed, and the captain of the battery wounded. The corps of General Lariomelicki a native of Armenia, in marching on Kars attacked the Turkish cavalry, taking prison er one colonel and six other efficers. Two squadrons of the Karrapapas tribe, brought into submission by the Turks, laid down their arms, offering their services to the Russian army. Fifty men were received, and the others disbanded.
